

2019 Tax Year

Under the new tax law, Professional Deductions are no longer allowed for your Federal Return. If you live in AL, AR, CA, HI, IA, MN, NY or PA, they still take them. You will need to download the "Professional Deduction Organizer" and submit it with this Organizer.

I understand it is my responsibility to include any and all information concerning income, deductions and other information necessary for the preparation of my personal tax return. All returns in house after March 15th will have an extension automatically filed. The forms listed in the Pricing Information section are the most common forms used. Additional forms not listed may result in per form fees. Administrative fees will apply for more complex returns. I will be responsible for any collection fees due to nonpayment. (If filing a joint return, both you and your spouse must sign.)

Changes in Federal Tax Law require Tax Practitioners to adhere to Due Diligence rules for claiming dependents. In order to comply with the new law, complete this form in its entirety to claim a dependent.

Dependent's gross income must be under $4,150 unless they were a full-time student under the age of 24.

Child Care: Qualifying expense for care which allows you to work, look for work, or go to school full time. This information must be provided even if you have dependent care benefits.
